

THE ARTS SOCIETY CHICHESTER LAVANT VALLEY

Study Day at the Assembly Room Chichester 20 May 2022 : Mary Alexander

Why Paris? The Allure of the City of Light 1900-1945

A stimulating and enjoyable Study Day exploring how and why the city of Paris has acted as both a magnet and cauldron of talent for aspiring artists and designers. Discover more about the key events and personalities shaping the 'City of Light' during the first half of the twentieth century. Looking beyond the mainstream, we will identify the creative individuals, including newly emerging female talents, who shaped the Parisian concept of 'modernity' in art, design, interiors, fashion, and photography.

10.30 : La Belle Époque - city of pleasure and reinvention 1890s – 1914

11.30: Tea/Coffee break

11.45: Partying into the Future 1920s and 30s

12.45: Lunch Interval

1.45: Paris Exposition 1937, Occupation and Defiance

2.45: Vote of Thanks

Mary will bring a selection from her personal vintage postcard collection, advertisements, fashion plates, and historic exhibition catalogues for your enjoyment.

Bring your own lunch and we will provide a glass of wine or soft drinks

Cost for the Day including wine/soft drink at lunchtime : Members £40.; Guests will be admitted for £45 if places are available and they are accompanied by a member. Please give the name and address for contact of the guest and you will be notified in due course, with a request then for a cheque

N.B. Refunds can only be made if tickets are re-sold. Please notify Gillian Scott if you can't attend.

Study Day: Why Paris? The Allure of the City of Light 1900-1945

Return this portion to Gillian Scott, New House , Whitechimney Row, Emsworth PO10 8RS together with your cheque (payable to TAS Chichester Lavant Valley) and a stamped, addressed envelope.

Name: _____

Address: _____

email _____ Tel No _____

Emergency Contact Details Name: _____

Phone No _____

No. of tickets: Member @ £40

Guest: Name @ £45

Address